Covering chapters 19, 20 and 21, I followed or will follow the book quite closely. These chapters are also relatively easy. Providing lecture notes for those chapters will not add anything significant to the learning process. In covering chapter 22, I took a slightly different approach and hence I believe that notes on that chapter may contribute to the learning process. Notes for that chapter will be available after lecture 5.